Why Choose Inside the Vatican Pilgrimages?

With more than 25 years of publishing Inside the Vatican magazine, we have colleagues and friends all over the world — and many of them have become part of our Pilgrimage family.

Designing an Inside the Vatican pilgrimage begins with a theme or a particular country; then we weave in encounters with real people who live and work there, as well as those with expert knowledge in its historical and spiritual perspectives. Our itineraries include both world-renowned and little-known places, and every detail has been arranged to create a truly unique experience; we do not have cookie-cutter pilgrimages!

Whether you choose one of our intimate-sized Signature Pilgrimages, or a Classic Pilgrimage with budget-friendly pricing, we work hard to ensure that every pilgrimage is a moving experience, an authentic spiritual journey for each pilgrim.

A PERSONAL INVITATION FROM DR. ROBERT MOYNIHAN

Dear Pilgrim,

I would like to extend a warm invitation to you, to join us on our "England: Mary's Dowry" pilgrimage.

The tradition of referring to England as Our Lady's Dowry goes back to medieval times, specifically the reign of Richard II (1377-1399) and the prayer he made to Our Lady of Pew at the time of the Peasants' Revolt. The dowry tradition is associated with placing England under Our Lady's special protection, consecrating the country to her by right, as the Bride of the Holy Spirit. The famous Wilton Dyptich, now in the National Gallery, depicts King Richard enacting this spiritual "exchange." But it is as relevant today as it ever was.

What is a dowry if not the riches that a woman brings to her husband? What are the riches of the Church, in a particular place, if not her saints? We shall be tracing the history of the British Church through these "living stones" on fire with the love of God, as we travel from the Carmelite Shrine of Our Lady in Aylesford, moving on to Canterbury, Ramsgate and Walsingham, "England's Nazareth," where we will celebrate the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin on August 15th. After which we will be in Norwich, home of that great English mystic, Mother Julian, whose writings have brought comfort and strength to so many down the centuries. We will conclude our pilgrimage by walking through the streets discovering Catholic London through the centuries and even today.

We have worked hard to create a unique and special 10 days. I hope you will enjoy every aspect of your time with us, from places of great spiritual and historical resonance, to the people we shall meet along the way, all of whom are examples of how the Church is still thriving in England, in spite of centuries of persecution and obscurity.

Come and experience Marian England. Come and experience England's Nazareth. With us, partake of Mary's Dowry.

Why Pilgrimage to England, the Dowry of Mary?

In 2020, England will be re-dedicated by its Catholic Church as the “Dowry of Mary” — as it was called in more ancient times — in an effort to deepen and promote devotion to the Mother of God in England. The title originated in the medieval period, when devotion to Mary was particularly strong. It was believed that England belonged in some special way to Mary, who was seen as the country’s “protectress” and who, through her powers of intercession, acted as the country’s defender or guardian.

Walsingham is one of the oldest shrines to the Mother of God; and in pre-Reformation times, it ranked with Jerusalem, Rome and Compostela as one of the most visited shrines in Christendom. The message of Our Lady at Walsingham is very simple: she asks us to “share her joy at the Annunciation,” where her Son became our Savior. In preparation for the 2020 commemoration, a statue of Our Lady of Walsingham recently went “on tour,” visiting all of the Catholic cathedrals of England. Join us on this pilgrimage as we, too, journey through England, both outwardly and inwardly seeking Our Lady, and deepening our own devotion to her.

The first Catholic Shrine in honor of Our Lady to be established in England before the Reformation. Overnight in Canterbury. Lunch on your own. 🍽️

OUR LADY OF CONSOLATION

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12

Canterbury, Ramsgate and Dover. From Rome to England: The landing of St. Augustine of Canterbury

After breakfast in the hotel, we will depart for the coastal city of Ramsgate and the Shrine of St. Augustine of Canterbury, known as the “Apostle to the English.” It was here where St. Augustine first landed in England in 597 to begin his journey of converting Britain to the Faith at the request of Pope St. Gregory the Great. We will attend Mass celebrated in the Extraordinary Form at the shrine.

BREAKFAST

LUNCH

DINNER

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13

---

Canterbury, Eastminster. Mystical Life of the High Middle Ages, Thomas à Becket through the Reformation

After breakfast, we will tour the Canterbury Cathedral which was originally founded in 597 by St. Augustine. The Canterbury Cathedral is one of the oldest Christian churches in England. Canterbury has been an important spiritual center since the time of St. Augustine; however, it became a major pilgrimage destination after the martyrdom of St. Thomas à Becket in 1170. This is perhaps most famously demonstrated in Geoffrey Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales, which revolves around a group of pilgrims journeying to see the holy relics of this great saint in the Canterbury Cathedral. The cathedral continues to play a central role in English Christianity today as it functions as the cathedral of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the leader of the Church of England.

The Roper Chapel, located at the Anglican St. Dunstan's church, is our next stop, where we will venerate the severed head of St. Thomas More, before attending Mass at the only Catholic parish in Canterbury, St. Thomas of Canterbury church. In mid-afternoon, we will travel a short distance to Eastminster to encounter the Benedictine nuns of Minster Abbey for tea and Vespers. Overnight in Canterbury. Lunch on your own. 🍷 🍴

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL

STATUE OF OUR LADY OF MT CARMEL
HOLDING THE BROWN SCAPULAR

FRIDAY, AUGUST 14

---

Aylesford, Walsingham. Mary's gift of the Brown Scapular

After breakfast, we travel toward Our Lady's Shrine in Walsingham, stopping along the way at the Carmelite Shrine at Aylesford. This shrine was founded in 1242 when the first Carmelites arrived from the Holy Land. They came under the patronage of Richard de Grey, a crusader who gave them a small piece of land at his manor of Aylesford. Our Lady appeared here to St. Simon Stock in about 1251, giving him the brown scapular with her promise of final perseverance to all who wear it with devotion. Here we will attend Mass and spend time in prayer at the shrine before lunch. Then we continue north for Walsingham to check in to the Dowry Retreat House for the next three nights. Overnight in Walsingham. 🍷 🍴 🏠

SATURDAY, AUGUST 15

Walsingham. Feast of the Assumption

WALSINGHAM

After breakfast, we will explore the village of Walsingham, which is often referred to as “England’s Nazareth,” after Richeldis de Faverches, a devout English noblewoman, in 1061 had a vision of the Virgin Mary in which she was shown Mary’s house in Nazareth. Mary requested Richeldis to build a similar house in Walsingham. A monastic community still exists there today, and the nuns have undertaken an interesting journey from the Church of England to the Catholic Church. On this, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, we will attend Mass at midday at the Chapel of Our Lady of Walsingham, and pray in the restored “Slipper Chapel” where medieval pilgrims used to leave their shoes before walking the “holy mile” into the village where the original shrine was situated.

In the afternoon, we will return to the village center to see the old abbey ruins of the Augustinian Priory of The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which was one of the oldest shrines to Our Lady in England before its dissolution in 1538. Time permitting, we will take a short drive to see the coastline and have tea at Holkham Nature Reserve. Overnight in Walsingham. 🍷🚫🏠

SUNDAY, AUGUST 16

Walsingham, Quidenham, Norwich. An Interior Life of Prayer

After breakfast, we will depart for Norwich, the city of Saint Julian of Norwich, the 14th-century English anchoress and an important Christian mystic. Her book, Revelations of Divine Love, written around 1395, is the first book in the English language known to have been written by a woman.

Inspired by divine love, Julian made a radical decision. Like an ancient anchoress, she decided to live in a cell located near the church called after St Julian, in the city of Norwich — in her time an important urban center not far from London.

– Pope Benedict, 2010

We will visit her shrine, which was built on the site of her original cell. There we will be drawn into the interior life of this woman of prayer. We will attend Sunday Mass at the Catholic Cathedral in Norwich. Lunch will be in Norwich’s city center at a wonderful local English restaurant. We will have time to walk around this medieval town with its cobbled streets, alleys and courtyards, and a river at its heart. It is the only English city in a National Park, the Norfolk Broads.

Time permitting, we will depart for the Carmelite Monastery of Quidenham, where we will encounter modern day mystics. Overnight in Walsingham. Lunch on your own. 🍷🏠

ST JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHEDRAL IN NORWICH

MONDAY, AUGUST 17

Walsingham, King's Lynn, Ely, London. Faith in the Middle Ages

We will attend Mass in the morning, followed by a talk describing the life of a medieval friar, given by Fr. James Mary, a Franciscan friar currently in residence in Walsingham. Afterwards, we depart Walsingham and drive to London with stops along the way, including King's Lynn to visit the church dedicated to Our Lady of Walsingham that began this devotion, and the historic Ely Cathedral.

The Ely Cathedral was founded by Etheldreda (d.679), queen, foundress and abbess of Ely. Her shrine was a popular destination for medieval pilgrims; however, it and the monastery were destroyed by King Henry VIII in 1539. This is the third largest church in England, blending several architectural styles, and is known for its music ministry. We will enjoy an al fresco lunch at Ely Cathedral overlooking the gardens and cathedral. Some may want to visit Oliver Cromwell's house located next door. After arriving in London, we will enjoy dinner at a family-owned-and-operated pub known for its traditional fish and chips! Overnight in London. Lunch on your own. 🍷 🍴

ELY CATHEDRAL

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18

London. To the tomb of St. Edward the Confessor

Mass at Westminster Cathedral, the largest Catholic church in England, begins our day in London. The Cathedral is only three short blocks from our hotel. Among the exquisite pieces of art and architecture there, we will find a bas relief of the English martyrs, St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher. Additionally, there is a famous statue formerly known as Our Lady of Pew (now Our Lady of Westminster) before which St. Thomas More would often pray.

Afterwards, we will walk just half a mile to Westminster Abbey for lunch and a tour. Westminster Abbey was originally built as a Benedictine monastery by St. Edward the Confessor in 1065. All the British monarchs have been crowned in Westminster Abbey since William the Conqueror in 1066, and it is here that St. Edward the Confessor is buried; we will be able to venerate his tomb, which is normally closed to the public. Westminster Abbey is dedicated to St. Peter and Eastminster (St. Paul's Cathedral) is dedicated to St. Paul. During St. Thomas More's public service in 1504, Parliament met in the Charter House of Westminster Abbey, which was later dissolved in 1540 by King Henry VIII. After our time in Westminster Abbey, we will walk by the famous Downing Street and Trafalgar Square on our way to the National Gallery to view the famous Wilton Dyptich. This painting is of most significance because it is one of the earliest depictions of England being presented by the King to Our Lady as a gift, her "Dowry"... afternoon and evening free to explore London on your own.

A possible excursion in the late afternoon: taxi to the London Oratory. It is the church of the Congregation of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri. Popularly, but incorrectly, known as "Brompton Oratory," it is the second-largest Catholic church in London. St. Philip Neri (1515-1595) founded the Congregation of the Oratory in Rome and it has spread throughout the world, now numbering some seventy houses and five hundred priests. Soon after converting to Catholicism in 1845, Saint John Henry Newman became an Oratorian and founded the first Oratory in the English-speaking world. Overnight in London. Lunch and Dinner on your own. 🍷 🍴

London. Catholic London and Literary London

After breakfast, we will take a walking tour of London. The streets will come alive as Kevin Turley peels back centuries of Catholic history telling stories of Catholic and Literary London. We begin at Charterhouse learning about the Carthusians coming to London continuing on to St. Bartholomew, the oldest catholic parish in London, and St. Etheldreda for Mass. Lunch will be at the famous Fleet Street Pub, one of the oldest in London. Dine where Dr. Samuel Johnson, Charles Dickens (who referred to it in A Tale of Two Cities), Yeats, Wilde, and Thackeray frequented. Afternoon we will learn more about literary London and the Pre reformation Catholic history to present day Chesterton. Time permitting, we will walk down the embankment to Tower Hill and London Bridge. Our day will finish at Tyburn Convent for tea with Sisters. Tyburn Convent commemorates the many Catholic martyrs, including St. Edmund Campion who were executed nearby. We will have a tour of the crypt where we can venerate relics of the martyrs, and we will attend Vespers and meet with the sisters in residence here. Tyburn is a place of perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, so we will also have the opportunity for personal prayer here. Our farewell dinner will be our opportunity to gather one last time around a table, sharing a meal and conversation. Dinner and Overnight in London. Lunch on your own. 🍷🍴

NUN AT TYBURN CONVENT

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20

After breakfast and farewell, a private transport will take you back to the airport for your return home. Farewell to all our fellow pilgrims, our friends, until we meet again... 🍷
